

Miklós Dobos

Tourguide (hungarian-english-german-russian)

Born in Budapest, studies at Budapest University of Economics, specialised in foreign trade and languages.

1985 graduated from special courses for tourist guides. I started to work in the field of foreign trade, later in tourism. Speak: english, german and russian.

Since 1992 work as freelance guide (tour leader), both inbound and outbound visiting most countries of the world.

I take groups, private guests all over the country and in Budapest - in my home city - also escort groups outbound (Europe, Asia).

Especially like music, working with groups (private guests) having interest in different concert- and opera performances, music life of Hungary (Budapest Spring Festival, Wagner Days in Arts Palace, Miskolc Summer Festival Bartok +).

I myself visit very often concert- and opera performances all over the world (New York, Chicago, Buenos Aires, London, Glyndebourne, Bayreuth, Milan, Vienna), take groups of opera fans to many festivals (Verona, Savonlinna). This is one of my hobbies, beside travelling and guiding.

I do different tours: sightseeing, cruises, incentive-congress tourism, also bi- and multilingual (english-german, russian-english) guidance for both groups and individuals. Work for many major and smaller hungarian and foreign travel bureaus, sightseeing companies (Malév Air Tours, IBUSZ, TUI, Uniworld, Start, Euroguide, EURama, Program Centrum, MAHART Passnave, Motivation, Event+Incoming, NET Travel, Welcome Touristic, Amexco, Travcoa, Trafalgar, SAGA).

Hobbies: my job, travel, culture, classical music (opera), history, economy.
